

Group Presentations Checklist

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Well prepared and articulated sequence of information:

- With limited detail and accuracy
- With some detail and accuracy
- With considerable detail and accuracy
- Accurately with extensive detail

2. Detailed explanation of group's hypothesis and reasoning behind choice of materials used:

- With limited detail and accuracy
- With some detail and accuracy
- With considerable detail and accuracy
- Accurately with extensive detail

3. Detailed explanation of the group's oil spill cleanup process and its effectiveness:

- With limited detail and accuracy
- With some detail and accuracy
- With considerable detail and accuracy
- Accurately with extensive detail

4. Appropriate vocabulary used and an understanding of the scientific nature of oil spills:

- With limited detail and accuracy
- With some detail and accuracy
- With considerable detail and accuracy
- Accurately with extensive detail

BLM 1.1.h

EcoKids®
EARTH DAY CANADA

5. Collaborates with small group to complete the required task:

- Sometimes contributes to the group task
- Works with group but requires some cues to stay on task
- Supports the work of the group, seeking support only when needed
- Demonstrates leadership and provides direction to facilitate group work, requiring limited or no support

6. Attention of the audience held by using unique and creative presentation techniques:

- With a limited level of uniqueness and creativity
- With some level of uniqueness and creativity
- With a considerable level of uniqueness and creativity
- With an extensive level of uniqueness and creativity

BLM 1.1.h

EcoKids®

EARTH DAY CANADA