

Group Presentations Checklist

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Well prepared and articulated sequence of information:

- With limited detail and accuracy.
- With some detail and accuracy.
- With considerable detail and accuracy.
- Accurately with extensive detail.

2. Detailed explanation of group's findings regarding the water chemistry test, turbidity test, filtration test, and erosion and deposition analysis:

- With limited detail and accuracy.
- With some detail and accuracy.
- With considerable detail and accuracy.
- Accurately with extensive detail.

3. Detailed explanation of the group's recommendations for the water quality on Siena Island:

- With limited detail and accuracy.
- With some detail and accuracy.
- With considerable detail and accuracy.
- Accurately with extensive detail.

4. Appropriate vocabulary used and an understanding of the scientific nature of water and water quality:

- With limited detail and accuracy.
- With some detail and accuracy.
- With considerable detail and accuracy.
- Accurately with extensive detail.

BLM 1.5.a

EcoKids®

EARTH DAY CANADA

5. Collaborates with small group to complete the required task:

- Sometimes contributes to the group task.
- Works with group but requires some cues to stay on task.
- Supports the work of the group, seeking support only when needed.
- Demonstrates leadership and provides direction to facilitate group work, requiring limited or no support.

6. Attention of the audience held by using unique and creative presentation techniques:

- With a limited level of uniqueness and creativeness.
- With some level of uniqueness and creativeness.
- With a considerable level of uniqueness and creativeness
- With an extensive level of uniqueness and creativeness.

BLM 1.5.a

EcoKids®

EARTH DAY CANADA